UNDERSTANDING WHOM REAL ESTATE AGENTS REPRESENT

Montana law requires that BUYERS and SELLERS be advised about the different types of agency relationships available to them (MT ST 37-51-313 & 37-51-314). A real estate agent is qualified to advise only on real estate matters. As the client or as the customer, please be advised that you have the option of hiring outside professional services on your own behalf (legal and tax counsel, home or building inspectors, accountant, environmental inspectors, range management or agricultural advisors, etc.) at any time during the course of a transaction to obtain additional information to make an informed decision. Each and every agent has obligations to each other party to a transaction no matter whom the agent represents. The various relationships are as follows:

A "Seller Agent" is obligated to the Seller to:

- (a) act solely in the best interest of the seller, except that a seller agent, after written disclosure to the seller and with the seller's written consent, may represent multiple sellers of property or list properties for sale that may compete with the seller's property without breaching any obligation to the seller;
- (b) obey promptly and efficiently all lawful instructions of the seller;
- (c) disclose all relevant and material information that concerns the real estate transaction and that is known to the seller agent and not known or discoverable by the seller, unless the information is subject to confidentiality arising from a prior or existing agency relationship on the part of the seller agent with a buyer or another seller;
- (d) safeguard the seller's confidences;
- (e) exercise reasonable care, skill, and diligence in pursuing the seller's objectives and in complying with the terms established in the listing agreement;
- (f) fully account to the seller fort any funds or property of the seller that comes into the seller agent's possession; and
- (g) comply with all applicable federal and state laws, rules, and regulations.

A "Seller Agent" is obligated to the Buyer to:

- (a) disclose to a buyer or the buyer agent any adverse material facts that concern the property and that are known to the seller agent except that the seller agent is not required to inspect the property or verify any statements made by the seller;
- (b) disclose to a buyer or the buyer agent when the seller agent has no personal knowledge of the veracity of information regarding adverse material facts that concern the property;
- (c) act in good faith with a buyer and a buyer agent; and
- (d) comply with all applicable federal and state laws, rules, and regulations.

A "Buyer Agent" is obligated to the Buyer to:

- (a) Act solely in the best interest of the buyer, except that a buyer agent, after written disclosure to the buyer and with the buyer's written consent, may represent multiple buyers interested in buying the same property or similar properties to the property in which the buyer is interested or show properties in which the buyer is interested to other prospective buyers without breaching any obligation of the buyer;
- (b) obey promptly and efficiently all lawful instructions of the buyer;
- (c) disclose all relevant and material information that concerns the real estate transaction and that is known to the buyer agent and not known or discoverable by the buyer, unless the information is subject to confidentiality arising from a prior or existing agency relationship on the part of the buyer agent with a buyer or seller;
- (d) safeguard the buyer's confidences;

- (e) exercise reasonable care, skill, and diligence in pursuing the buyer's objectives and in complying with the terms established in the Buyer/Broker agreement;
- (f) fully account to the buyer for any funds or property of the buyer that comes into the buyer agent's possession; and
- (g) comply with all applicable federal and state laws, rules, and regulations.

A "Buyer Agent" is obligated to the Seller to:

- (a) disclose any adverse material facts that are known to the buyer agent and that concern the ability of the buyer to perform on any purchase offer;
- (b) disclose to a seller or the seller agent when the buyer agent has no personal knowledge of the veracity of information regarding adverse material facts that concern the buyer;
- (c) act in good faith with a seller and a seller agent; and
- (d) comply with all applicable federal and state laws, rules, and regulations.

A "Statutory Broker" is not the agent of the buyer or seller, but nevertheless is obligated to them to:

- (a) disclose to:
 - (i) a buyer or a buyer agent any adverse material facts that concern the property and that are known to the statutory broker, except that the statutory broker is not required to inspect the property or verify any statements made by the seller:
 - (ii) a seller or a seller agent any adverse material facts that are known to the statutory broker and that concern the ability of the buyer to perform on any purchase offer;
- (b) exercise reasonable care, skill, and diligence in putting together a real estate transaction; and
- (c) comply with all applicable federal and state laws, rules, and regulations.

A "Dual Agent" is obligated to a seller in the same manner as a seller agent and is obligated to a buyer in the same manner as a buyer agent, except that a dual agent:

- (a) has a duty to disclose to a buyer or seller any adverse material facts that are known to the dual agent regardless of any confidentiality considerations; and
- (b) may not disclose the following information without the written consent of the person whom the information is confidential;
 - (i) the fact that the buyer is willing to pay more than the offered purchase price;
 - (ii) the fact that the seller is willing to accept less than the purchase price that the seller is asking for the property.
 - (iii) factors motivating either a party to buy or sell; and
 - (iv) any information that a party indicates in writing to the dual agent is to be kept confidential.

IF A SELLER AGENT IS ALSO RESPRESENTING A BUYER, OR A BUYER AGENT IS ALSO REPRESENTING A SELLER WITH REGARD TO A PROPERTY, THEN A DUAL AGECY RELATIONSHIP MAY BE ESTABLISHED. IN A DUAL AGENCY RELATIONSHIP, THE DUAL AGENT IS EQUALLY OBLIGATED TO BOTH THE SELLER AND THE BUYER. THESE OBLIGATIONS MAY PROHIBIT THE DUAL AGENT FROM ADVOCATING EXCLUSIVELY ON BEHALF OF THE SELLER OR BUYER AND MAY LIMIT THE DEPTH AND DEGREE OF REPRESENTATION THAT YOU RECEIVE. A BROKER OR A SALESPERSON MAY NOT ACT AS A DUAL AGENT WITHOUT THE SIGNED, WRITTEN CONSENT OF BOTH THE SELLER AND THE BUYER.

The agency relationship of a buyer agent, seller agent, or dual agent continues until the earliest of the following dates:

- (i) completion of performance by the agent
- (ii) the expiration date agreed to in the listing agreement or buyer broker agreement; or

Rev 12302021 2

(iii) the occurrence of any authorized termination of the listing agreement or buyer broker agreement.

A statutory broker's relationship continues until the completion, termination, or abandonment of the real estate transaction giving rise to the relationship.

Upon termination of an agency relationship, a broker or salesperson does not have any further duties to the principal, except as follows:

- (a) to account for all money and property of the principal;
- (b) to keep confidential all information received during the course of the agency relationship that was made confidential at the principal's direction, except for:
 - (i) subsequent conduct by the principal that authorizes disclosure;
 - (ii) disclosure of any adverse material facts that concern the principal's property or the ability of the principal to perform on any purchase offer;
 - (iii) disclosure required by law or to prevent the commission of a crime;
 - (iv) the information being disclosed by someone other than the broker or salesperson; and
 - (v) the disclosure of the information being reasonably necessary to defend the conduct of the broker or salesperson, including employees, independent contractors, and subagents.

Consistent with the licensee's duties as a buyer agent, a seller agent, a dual agent, or a statutory broker, a licensee shall endeavor to ascertain all pertinent facts concerning each property in any transaction in which the licensee acts so that the licensee may fulfill the obligation to avoid error, exaggeration, misrepresentation, or concealment of pertinent facts.

An "Adverse material fact" means a fact that should be recognized by a broker or salesperson as being of enough significance as to affect a person's decision to enter into a contract to buy or sell real property and may be a fact that:

- (a) materially affects the value, affects the structural integrity, or presents a documented health risk to occupants of the property; and
- (b) materially affects the buyer's ability or intent to perform the buyer's obligations under a proposed or existing contract.

"Adverse material fact" does not include the fact that an occupant of the property has or has had a communicable disease or that the property was the site of a suicide or felony.
